

REGISTER
NOW

edible

BOOK
DAY

Deadline
March 18

Demonstrate your love of books, baking and art!

Friday, April 8th, 2016 | New Orleans Museum of Art | City Park

Win a ribbon in six different categories:

- Funniest/Punniest
- Best Visual Presentation
- Most Creative
- Most like a book
- Professional categories***
- Students****

* restricted to those in the culinary industry
** for students taking baking and pastry art classes

For more information or to register
www.noma.org | 504-658-4117

The Event

Edible Book Day is an international celebration of literature, art, and food. Museums, libraries, and universities throughout the world participate to create a program for creative individuals and community groups to highlight their artistic, baking, and decorating skills.

Local community groups and individuals are invited to bake and decorate cakes inspired by books through the integration of text, literary inspiration or form.

The Awards

Ribbons will be awarded for the 3 best cakes in each category, and one "People's Choice" ribbon will be awarded. A photo of the winning cakes will be posted on the on NOMA's Facebook page.

The Judges

Our judges are Charles Brown, City Librarian/Executive Director, New Orleans Public Library; Susan Ford, publisher of Louisiana Kitchen and Culture magazine; and Susan Larson, The Reading Life, WNNO

The Location

Café NOMA/NOMA's Elevator Lobby,
One Collins Diboll Circle, New Orleans,
LA 70124

The Time

- Set-up | 4:30 p.m.
- Judging and People's Choice ballots start | 5:30 p.m.
- Café NOMA Cake Decorating Demonstration | 6 p.m.
- People's Choice voting ends | 6:30 p.m.
- Awards announced in Café NOMA | 7 p.m.